To use creativity, fresh thinking and multiple perspectives to respond fast and effectively to emerging ethnic community. We want all our business and community partners to feel valued for their culture, skills and traits, and to know they can fulfill their ambition and contribute to the success of our programs. By promoting diversity, we can make America a better place to work, live and to do business, and to better understand our diverse needs, give our communities

The bottom line is that public TV is a valued and vital resource to television viewers. What makes PTV's "share of mind" even more remarkable is that it is not a "niche" channel like most of the cable channels with which it competes.
